

IT Insight magazine presents a new approach to its roundtable discussions, combining the best of both worlds in a rapidly evolving technological landscape.

The new format of hybrid roundtables – IT Insight Talks - will merge online and in-person elements, combining the convenience and accessibility of the virtual environment with the networking and interactive experience of a physical event. Held at the Lispólis Technology Hub Lisbon and open to a maximum of 6 speakers per edition, these roundtables will be moderated by Henrique Carreiro, Director of IT Insight, and will have an in-person audience of approximately 60 business and public decision-makers, with live broadcasting on the IT Insight channel.
